

English 112 -- Final Research Paper Grading Rubric

Student name: _____

Compelling title: (1) _____

First paragraph and thesis statement

Clearly presents the “controversial issue” that concerns environment, gender, or family: (3) _____

The topic is specific and focused enough for an 8-page paper: (3) _____

There is a proposal argument, which conforms to the requirements of a thesis: (6) _____

The thesis has “tension” (answers the reader’s “so what?” question; reveals what’s “at stake”): (4) _____

Body

Adequate body “paragraphing” (ie: avoiding paragraphs that are too long or short): (3) _____

Each body paragraph focuses on a specific idea: (3) _____

Arguments in support of thesis are presented and discussed: (4) _____

Arguments against thesis are presented and discussed/refuted: (4) _____

Transition sentences

Sentences linking paragraphs are strong: (2) _____

Transition phrases and transition sentences within paragraphs are used: (2) _____

Conclusion

The argument that has been proven is the same as initial argument: (4) _____

The argument has developed and gained complexity: (3) _____

The conclusion is of adequate length: (2) _____

The conclusion is convincing: (5) _____

Textual evidence and analysis

The paper focuses on a specific, defined community: (3) _____

The analysis is even-handed and relies on reasons and evidence to support thesis: (7) _____

The paper includes quotes from at least FOUR scholarly, peer-reviewed sources: (5) _____

The paper includes two primary sources from our class textbook: (2) _____

The quotes are introduced and correctly cited in the text: (5) _____

The Works Cited page is included and correct: (3) _____

Grammar and style

There are only a few (if any) instances of passive voice: (4) _____

There are only a few (if any) run-on or incomplete sentences or comma splices: (5) _____

The sentences throughout generally make sense: (5) _____

The paper maintains an academic tone throughout: (2) _____

The paper adheres to format and punctuation guidelines that I gave in class throughout the term: (3) _____

Loyalty to assignment instructions: (3) _____

Paper has been meaningfully revised since peer review and conference: (3) _____

Student gave peer review serious and thorough effort: (1) _____

Received points on paper: _____
(Possible points: 100 ON PAPER)

Presentation score, out of 20 POINTS: _____

Total out of 120: _____